Comments

“ I met Nona in Alaska just after her nephew Ivan and I were married almost 2 years ago in July. We stayed with she and Richard for 3 days and I just loved them and their caring hospitality. We went on a fun ride out in the mountains with her grandson and daughter and she was just so full of life even though I knew she had many health problems...she made us feel so wanted. One thing I remember was her telling me about the way Richard had spoiled her with jewelry and other things. They were truly a match made in heaven.
