

William "Bill" Maiser

January 8, 1946 - January 24, 2020

William "Bill" Maiser died surrounded by friends and family in Anchorage, Alaska on January 24 at the age of 74.

A nearly 40-year resident of Anchorage, Bill was known around the community for his joking style and passion for two things -- his wife Remy and fishing. He would often say that his life changed for the best when he met Remy Remedios to whom he was married for 25 years.

Bill enjoyed family time above all else – always with lots of laughter and regaling family and friends with stories and jokes. Remy's large extended family in Anchorage accepted him with wide arms – and offered him amazing food that he was all too happy to eat. Together, Bill and Remy travelled to her native home in Pangasinan province in the Philippines where her family embraced him as their "Kuya Bill". Their travels also included trips to Arizona to visit their grandchildren and to Oregon to visit Bill's oldest daughter. Bill worked at Ted Stevens International Airport as a food and beverage manager for over 20 years. As much as he enjoyed his time there, he was famous for saying he "worked to live". He took any moments he could find to be at the river fishing with Remy. A competitor by nature, he had to get used to Remy often catching more – and bigger – fish than he did. As with other things in his life, he handled it all with love and good humor.

Bill is survived by his beloved wife, Remy; sister Michelle Phillips; daughters, Jennifer Maiser and Anne Richmond; niece, Elizabeth Phillips; nephew, Tom Phillips; and grandchildren, Fiona, Wyatt, and Luke Richmond. He is preceded in death by his parents, Marian and Bill Maiser.

Services for Bill will be held on Saturday, February 1, at Legacy Heritage Chapel, Angelus Memorial Park, 440 E. Klatt Road. Friends and family will gather at 1:00 p.m. and a service will follow at 2:00 p.m.

“ Bill was one of my oldest friends both in age (74) and the number of years I knew him (well over 60). He promised to bring me a fresh salmon the next time he came to Arcata California where I live with my wife Lia and Daughter Ania, so.....Bill, you will be missed. It is so hard to say good-by to someone you have known for a life time.
